Seasons Hospice & Palliative Care chooses Homecare Homebase software

DALLAS, TX – Seasons Hospice & Palliative Care, one of the country’s leading hospice and palliative care providers has selected Homecare Homebase (HCHB) to help further its mission of “Honoring Life ~ Offering Hope” for end-of-life patients.

Founded in 1997, Seasons is a well-respected industry leader, known for being early adopters of cutting-edge technology and finding creative solutions that add quality to the lives of their patients and their families. With the growth in hospice and palliative care, the company has steadily expanded its services into innovative clinical programs including music therapy, open access, Namaste (memory care), children’s bereavement care, and others.

“The increasing acuity of our patients, coupled with a demanding regulatory environment requires a robust documentation solution to provide the best possible care. We needed a technology partner that would be one step ahead – always looking at new ways to innovate and improve our patient-centered care,” said Seasons CEO Todd Stern. “HCHB is perfectly aligned with our vision to support our staff, so we can put patients and families first.”

The Homecare Homebase solution will allow Seasons to optimize its full range of services including intake and referrals, physician orders, medications, family communication, spiritual support, and bereavement services.

HCHB President Scott Decker says his team is thrilled to have such a well-respected, nationally recognized hospice leader join their growing customer base. “We’re dedicated to the unique challenges of hospice and palliative care and we look forward to helping Seasons make great strides in compassionate patient care.”
